

High-Performing Organizations: A Framework for Growth

- ☑ Do you need help in becoming a high-performing organization?
- ☑ Do you want support in developing strategies to retain and attract top talent?
- ☑ Do you need strategies to evaluate and assess your leaders, teams, and organizational culture?
- ☑ Do you need help developing and supporting your leaders?

79%

of workers say company culture is important to job satisfaction.

75%

of the time, people are quitting because of their managers.

Transform Consulting Group (TCG) created the High-Performing Organizations Framework to improve leaders, individuals, and teams by strengthening organizational culture and performance at nonprofit organizations. We help you define what it takes to have a high-performing culture and provide a path for growth and development.

The High-Performing Organization Framework follows five critical elements for effectiveness:

1. Executive Leadership Consultation

2. Employee Satisfaction and Engagement Survey

3. Assessment Tools

4. Tailored Team Engagement Workshops

5. Individual Leadership Coaching
