

Collective Impact

Collaboration is vital to tackling your community's most complex issues—it allows partners to work together toward a common goal, pooling not only your diverse thoughts and perspectives, but also your resources. But where do you start?

Transform Consulting Group's (TCG) Collective Impact approach brings together cross-sector partners—nonprofits, government, and businesses—to solve a specific social problem, creating a shared vision and meaningful, sustained impact.

This structured process engages diverse stakeholders and partners, with an established process for engagement, to create buy-in at every step along the way.

Our Approach:

1. Bring Partners Together
2. Understand the Landscape
3. Co-Create Catalytic Solutions
4. Redesign the System

"If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together."
